

Booking conditions for DNT self-service and unattended cabins

Free cancellation of all bookings up to 5 days before arrival at no cost

Guests cancel themselves by logging onto «Min side» (My page) in the booking system under which the stay was booked. (e.g. Friday accommodation must be cancelled on the Sunday before by 23:59 hrs.)

Cancellations made 0-4 days before arrival will be charged in full.

Cancellations 0-4 days (before) should be sent/reported to the cabin/association as soon as possible.

In order to (be able to) lay claim to the bed you have booked you must turn up by 19:00 on the day the booking concerns. After 19:00 all beds will be available to guests who have not booked. On arrival after 19:00 other vacant beds or a mattress on the floor will be used if the bed you have booked is occupied. You have to bring along the receipt showing which cabin, day(s) and bed you have booked.

You must tidy up and wash your way out of your room/cabin by 12:00 on the day of departure.

A bed booking at a cabin can be moved to another date and/or another of DNT's self-service and unattended cabins in the same area within a timeframe of 5 days before and after the original date of arrival. Please note that in that case you have not booked a bed and must either use a vacant bed (after 19:00) or another vacant mattress. This DOES NOT apply to cabins for which the booking is for the whole cabin.

The cabins can be opened or locked with a DNT key or a special key. Please find further information on open/locked cabins and keys on ut.no, or in the booking confirmation.

On arrival at the cabin everyone must write their names in the booking log. This includes those who have booked in advance.

Privacy: We store your personal data when you book accommodation:

Full name, Address, E-mail address, Telephone number, Company (if relevant).

We store information about you and those who may be part of the booking in accordance with the applicable gdpr rules.

We also store information on which cabin/bed you have booked, the time of your visit, the total number of guests, and the price range in which the various people in your group are registered.

There are four reasons why we are storing this information:

So that we will be able to have a dialogue with you in connection with your booking.

So that you will be able to log on and cancel your stay yourself.

So that you will not have to provide information once again in connection with bookings later on.

Next time you will be able to state your telephone number or email address, log on and the rest of the information will have been completed for you.

In the event of searches or emergency operations we will be able to assist search crews on who is or has been at the various cabins without having to go to the cabin and the cabin log, which can give valuable information quickly on missing persons.

You can log onto our booking system at any time to see the data we have stored on you.

You can also download these data, and you can choose to delete all the data we have stored on you.
